Europass for Guidance Counselling

Europass provides guidance practitioners with multilingual tools and relevant information to help people with the careers and learning.

The Europass platform, managed by the European Commission, is a set of free online tools and information on lifelong learning and career development. These tools and information are a valuable resource for individuals as well as guidance practitioners when offering support and information to people interested in studying, training, working and volunteering in Europe.

An online platform for personal and professional growth

Planning learning and career paths require not only support by guidance practitioners but also up-to-date information and tools to support people with their decisions.

Europass offers a free set of online tools and information to help people manage every step of their learning and career. The new Europass profile enables users to display, document and share their skills, qualifications and experience from every stage of their life. It supports people in finding the right job or course by suggesting relevant opportunities corresponding to the individuals' skillset and experience. It offers free online reflection tools, access to information and the possibility to store and display digital credentials.

Europass is designed as an easy-access service that is responsive to the needs of diverse user groups (available in 29 different European languages).
